The Seventh Week of Easter Year B

Feasts and Memorials this week;

Tuesday – Pope St John I

Monday – Of Easter

I have told you this so that you might have peace in me. In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world. - John 16:33

These words spoken by Jesus in today's Gospel are a constant reminder that he is always with us and that no problem is too big for God. Let us give all of our worries and concerns over to him this morning. We ask this in Jesus' name, Amen.

Tuesday – Pope St John I

Good and gracious God, as we greet the signs in nature around us: of Spring once again regaling us in bloom, we give you praise for an even greater sign of new life: the resurrection of your Son. Resurrection is our guarantee that justice will triumph over treason, Light will overcome darkness, and love will conquer death. May we hold firm to this truth. In Jesus name we pray, Amen.

Wednesday – Of Easter

Lord, you taught us how to prayer when we were given the Our Father as the prayer of all Christians. Let us join with our brothers and sisters this morning as we say: Our Father...

Thursday – Of Easter

Father, preserve in our young people a sense of wonder at the marvels of life. Bless them so that they may grow in your love and in concern and service for the good of others. Teach them to discern good from bad, that they may grow in integrity of character and love of you. We ask this all this in Jesus name, Amen.

Friday – Of Easter

Lord, we know that you are with us always. During the busy times of our day we may forget Your presence and Your protecting love. As we prepare for the Feast of Pentecost this coming Sunday, help us to know the power of Your Spirit so that we may be aware of Your guiding hands in all we think and do and say. In Jesus name we pray, Amen.
