

'Let's begin with a prayer...' 2023/24

Week Commencing: Monday 6th November 2023
31st Week of Ordinary Time- ar A

Monday

'The greatest among you must be your servant. Anyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and anyone who humbles himself will be exalted.'

These words from the Gospel yesterday give us a model of leadership to follow; may we put other people's needs before our own today
Amen

TUESDAY- St Willibrord

Lord, you have called me to teach and you give me your son, Jesus the Teacher, as my guide.
You send me to be your face and word in school today, to bring your message of faith, hope and love. With my pupils may I be always patient and understanding.
With my colleagues may I be always generous and supportive and never dismissive or hurtful.
With myself may I be always grateful for daily blessings and never take things for granted. With everyone I encounter today may I be just in my actions and forgiving with my words.
May I praise, not criticise; encourage, not deter; help, not hinder; accompany, not direct; and bring light and joy to those I meet.
May my lessons be truthful and inspiring as they reveal the wonderful traces of your presence in creation and in the best of human kind. May my classroom be a place of peace and respect, discovery and learning, where each person is given space and encouragement to flourish, growing to be the person you call them to be.
Give me energy, and faith and commitment, especially when I am tired or despondent, let down, or wondering if my efforts are worthwhile. Give me the wisdom and strength of your Spirit, today and each day, that I may help the souls committed to my care for the common good and for your greater glory. Amen.

wednesday

Loving God, pour out upon us Your Spirit so that our eyes might be opened to see the hope that Your call holds for us. Give us the confidence to 'put out into deep water.', Trusting that you are with us always, to the end of time. Amen.

Thursday- Dedication of Lateran Basilica

As one family, united in faith, hope and love we pray:
Our Father,
who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
Amen

Friday- St Leo the Great

"Peace is the first thing the angels sang. Peace is the mark of the children of God."
Pope St Leo the Great
'They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.'
Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.
Amen
