

It is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me. This life that I live now,
I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave his life for me.

We Gather to Pray...

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen

Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world
without end.
Amen

Hail Mary, Full of Grace,
The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners now,
and at the hour of death.
Amen

Our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done, On earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day, our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen

Sign of the Cross and Gather

As we begin a new week, we light our candle and welcome the Lord to spend this time with us...

We may play some music to create a prayerful atmosphere in the classroom. In the Gospel yesterday, Jesus reminds us to practice what we preach! He tells us that if we want to be seen as 'great' we must put the needs of others before our own. We must be the servant to one another...

The Word

A short reading from the Gospel of Matthew

The greatest among you must be your servant. Anyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and anyone who humbles himself will be exalted.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ

But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

Matthew 23:11

Living the Word of God
Serve others today!

We Go Forth

God of peace,

Open my eyes to see the needs of others today.
Help me to see that it is in serving others we come to true greatness.
Amen.

SIGN OF THE CROSS AND GATHER

We pause at the start of a new day. We settle into this time of prayer. We may light our candle and play some music

Icons are pieces of religious art that are said to 'reveal to us the face of God.' Icons show stylised characters – enabling us to see beyond the person and to see the divine within them. Icons are said to be prayed not painted.

This icon is of 'Christ the Teacher', created in 2014 by Sr Mary Stella.

Our prayer this morning is simply to 'read' the icon, spending time to place ourselves into the scene...

What do we notice?

If we were there, what would we ask Jesus? What would we share with him?

After some personal reflection, you may wish to share your reflections with others.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Sign of the Cross and Gather

Today, we pause and think about what it means for God to love us unconditionally.

We give thanks for this great gift. Today, we pause and think about what it means for God to love us unconditionally.

The Word

From the Gospel of John

"I have loved you even as the Father has loved me. Remain in my love. When you obey my commandments, you remain in my love.

We Go Forth

In this month of the Holy Souls, we pray for all those who have died.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace

SIGN OF THE CROSS AND GATHER

We open our prayer journals today, light our candle and play some music. Tomorrow we will remember all those who have died through war and conflict. As a class, we prepare a special form prayer that we can use during our Act of Remembrance.

The Reflection

*'They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the
sun and in the morning
We will remember them.'*

we will remember them.

All:

We will remember them.

We Gather

Reader 1:

We meet in the presence of God. We commit ourselves to work for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

We pause for two minutes in silence

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

Glory to You, O Lord

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

Reader 6:

The response to our prayers is: May God give peace

Let us pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, and ask that God may give us peace: for the service men and women who have died in the violence of war, each one remembered by and known to God.

May God give peace

Reader 7:

For those who love them in death as in life, offering the distress of our grief and the sadness of our loss.

May God give peace

Reader 8:

For all members of the armed forces who are in danger this day, remembering family, friends and all who pray for their safe return.

May God give peace

Reader 9:

For civilian women, children and men whose lives are disfigured by war or terror, calling to mind in penitence the anger and hatreds of humanity.

May God give peace

Reader 10:

For peace-makers and peace-keepers, who seek to keep this world secure and free

May God give peace

Closing Prayer

Merciful God, we offer to you the fears in us that have not yet been cast out by love: May we accept the hope you have placed in the hearts of all people, and live lives of justice, courage and mercy; through Jesus Christ our risen Redeemer.

Amen

We now pray the family prayer of all Christians

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.

Thy Kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.

And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil

Amen

All:

When you go home
tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow
we gave our today.
